

Michael L. Fuquay
Miller Cupp Associates
Project Technician

Michael was raised in Stuarts Draft, Virginia for most of his life. After attending Stuarts Draft High School for two years, he was accepted for early admission into Blue Ridge Community College. He now resides in McGaheysville with his wife, Sarah and their two children.

Previous Experience:

July '04 – Present

Miller Cupp Associates, Architects, P.C.

- Experienced in producing design development and construction working drawings for commercial projects
- Structural Engineering experience includes steel and reinforced concrete design

Mar. '01 – July '04

Mather Barras Architects, P.C.

- Experienced in producing design development and construction working drawings for commercial projects
- Made bi-weekly visits to job sites to oversee construction progress
- Wrote construction specifications using the 16-Division Masterspec format
- Structural Engineering experience included steel and reinforced concrete design

Feb. '95 – Present

Regional Building Committee of Virginia

- Volunteer in Building and Site Plans Department
- Work involves the use of standard architectural plans for new construction and addition/remodeling of Kingdom Halls. On occasion, it will include the modification of standard plans to comply with Virginia state building codes and adapting to local needs

Nov. '96 – Mar. '01

Drafting Services & Supplies

- Experienced in producing preliminary design and working drawings
- Calculated structural elements of buildings - wood, steel, and reinforced concrete design
- Consulted with clients to discuss functionality and cost control of home designs
- Experienced in building and site design for both new construction and renovation

Education:

Jan. '97- May '99

Blue Ridge Community College - Weyers Cave, Virginia

Received College Diploma in Industrial Technology – GPA 3.75 of 4.00

- Made Deans List at Blue Ridge Community College
- My Cadd drawings were requested by Blue Ridge Community College to be used as teaching aides for future drafting students
- Blue Ridge Community College interviewed me about my work and experience in Architecture and Computer Aided Drafting for use in their new college brochures